Regional Naloxone Training for Law Enforcement

Arizona Governor Doug Ducey declared a public health state of emergency on June 5, 2017 in response to the alarming increase of opioid overdoses and deaths in the state. Law enforcement is uniquely positioned to positively impact this epidemic via the rapid administration of naloxone/Narcan to patients suspected of overdose.

There will be naloxone/Narcan trainings throughout the state:

June 19, 2017 - Flagstaff

Training site: High Country Conference Center

June 23, 2017 - Tucson

Training site: Westin La Paloma Hotel

June 29, 2017 - Phoenix

Training site: Black Canyon Conference Center

Each location will offer three separate sessions:

Session 1: 8 a.m. - 11 a.m.

Session 2: 11 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Session 3: 2 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Register for the session you would like to attend:
